

Take action today to reduce our carbon footprint. We can all play our part. Visit <https://www.mewr.gov.sg/individual-pledge> now to pledge your personal commitment towards climate action!

The Year of Climate Action is all about working together to fight climate change for a sustainable Singapore. Here are some highlights of the programmes and initiatives by MEWR and our 3P partners as we pledge our commitments to take climate action.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE YEAR OF CLIMATE ACTION?

JAN

Climate Action Roundtable with NGOs

More than 30 NGOs and interest groups were invited to discuss ways on how to kick-start grounds-up movements to commemorate the Year of Climate Action.

Climate Action Roundtable with Youths

In collaboration with the National Youth Council, passionate and youths gathered to ideate solutions to spread climate action messages through their circles of influence.

South West CDC (SWCDC) Eco Day Out

An annual environmental flagship event by SWCDC to showcase, celebrate and recognize environmental efforts in the district

Year of Climate Action Launch

Our valued partners – comprising of ambassadors, corporate chiefs, trade association reps, principals, and NGOs came together to mark this special school occasion, which also saw the launch of the Climate Action pledge and logo.

FEB

Sembcorp Marine Green Wave Environmental Care Project for Schools

Inspired by Sembcorp Marine's philosophy of environmental protection, Green Wave is an competition for school students to showcase their innovative ideas for environmental conservation.

Mass Pledging by Bukit View Secondary School (BVSS)

BVSS became the first school in Singapore to successfully collect climate action pledges from all its 1,300 students and staff, solidifying the school's firm commitment to fight climate action.

IKEA's Renewable Energy Project

IKEA is the first commercial enterprise in Singapore to activate a large-scale solar cooling system. The project is expected to help its Alexandra store save $1.3m over the next 10 years.

Global Environment Outlook

MEWR played host to over 200 eminent scientists and academics who convened in Singapore to share scientific knowledge on the causes and impacts of environmental change.

Opening of JOULES Smart Centre

A partnership with the Singapore Green Building Council has resulted in the creation of a unique green classroom for BVSS students to learn about green innovation and products.

Global Environment Outlook

MEWR played host to over 200 eminent scientists and academics who convened in Singapore to share scientific knowledge on the causes and impacts of environmental change.

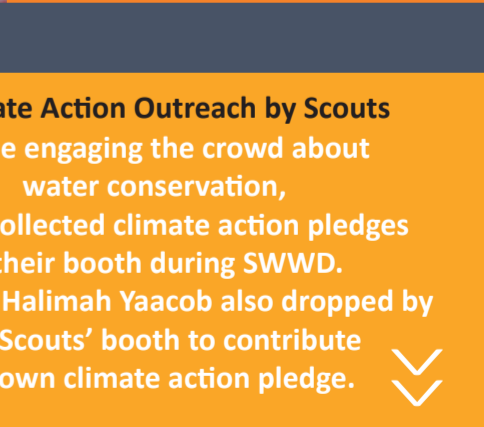

Commitments to Sustainable Palm Oil

The Southeast Asia Alliance for Sustainable Palm Oil (SASPO) is an industry led alliance which provides a knowledge-sharing platform for companies that source for sustainable palm oil.

Henkel Singapore's Year of Climate Action

The first organization to achieve 100% employees pledges for climate action and training as Sustainability Ambassadors, Henkel Singapore is committed to leadership in sustainability.

MARCH

Singapore World Water Day (SWWD)

Celebrated throughout the month of March, the SWWD campaign rallies the community to save water, as one of the ways to take climate action. Over 30,000 people have pledged to do their part to save water.

EcoBank 2018

An initiative by City Developments Limited and Eco-Business to raise awareness about the need for sustainable consumption and waste reduction during the festive period.

Climate Action Outreach by Scouts

While engaging the crowd about water conservation, Scouts collected climate action pledges at their booth during SWWD. President Halimah Yaacob also dropped by the Scouts' booth to contribute her own climate action pledge.

Outreach by Zhonghua Secondary School National Cadet Corps (NCC)

As part of Earth Hour, NCC cadets went door to door to collect climate action pledges from Serangoon residents. The students shared simple ways to fight climate change and collected 175 pledges.

Love Fiesta 2018 by Jurong Junior College

Eco ambassadors at JJC rallied fellow students and visitors to take the climate action pledge.

